

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Version 2.4 Nov 22

1. Our contract with you

- 1.1 At your request our team will make an assessment about your needs and whether we consider it appropriate to introduce you to our network of clinicians, health providers, hospital facilities or direct services. During this process, we may communicate with you via secure email and/or by phone. If you have a preferred method of contact, please let us know. Any such decision is entirely at our discretion.
- 1.2 Forming a contract between us. If, following our assessment (pursuant to 1.1), we consider that we can provide our services to you, we will notify you of this verbally or in writing. If you require urgent care, we may not be able to provide you with written confirmation that we can provide our services to you. As soon as practicably possible, we will provide you with a copy of these written terms and conditions so that you can review them. However by you not receiving our terms and conditions prior to commencing with You (as defined below) will not necessarily void this agreement with You (as defined below)
- 1.3 A contract will be formed between us when:
- 1.3.1 If you require urgent care, a contract will be formed between us when you or your guardian/spouse/member of your family office instruct us to provide you with our services detailed in 2.1 to 2.3. The contract may be affirmed by your guardian, spouse or a member of your family office ('You').
- 1.3.2 If you do not require urgent care, a contract will be formed between us when:
- a) You have accepted these terms and conditions orally or in writing;
  - b) You have agreed to our fee rates in accordance with clause 7.3;
  - c) You have joined our retained health management service;
  - d) From any initial e-mail message sent by You or telephone conversation made by You or any oral confirmation given by You; or
  - e) You commence the care process with our network of clinicians, care providers and hospital facilities, following which we will send you an email to confirm our acceptance of your request.
- 1.4 If we cannot accept your request. If we are unable to accept your request, we will inform you of this in writing or by telephone. Reasons include without limitation: our providers being unavailable at the required time or the urgency of the requested consultation. We will not charge you for the services and we will refund to you any payment made in advance for the affected services. No inference should be drawn from any decision not to make an introduction.

2. Our services and the nature of our contract – what we do and cannot do

- 2.1 Referring you to our providers. Once we have accepted your request and a contract exists between us, we will use our reasonable endeavours to source an appropriate provider for you or provide direct services. Whether we consider a provider to be appropriate will be determined having regard to our communication with you, your description of your needs and the information that we hold about our providers. You may at any time request an alternative provider.
- 2.2 Please take careful note that whilst we take reasonable steps to make sure that you are referred to a provider appropriate for your needs, we are not able and do not make medical judgments about your condition or the type of care and treatment you require: only a qualified medical practitioner such as our providers are qualified to do this.
- 2.3 If you believe that the provider that we have referred you to is not adequate for your needs then you must notify us right away.
- 2.4 Once we have introduced you to a provider, you agree not to directly communicate with that provider without our prior written consent.
- 2.5 Once we have referred you to a provider, we provide a total management and billing service. As regards your medical care this will be provided entirely by your provider and we are not responsible for providing medical advice or treatment to you and accordingly we will not be liable and we accept no liability arising from the medical service you are provided by your provider. Please note that all charges for medical services are at rates determined by us and are available upon request;

- 2.6 If we cannot source an appropriate provider for you. We will use our reasonable endeavours to refer you to an appropriate provider to help with your needs, but we may be unable to do so. If so, we will give you a full refund of any payment that you have made to us. Once we have referred you to a provider you will not be entitled to a refund unless we agree that the provider did not have the correct qualifications for your needs.
- 2.7 If our provider cannot perform the contract. If we have successfully referred you to an appropriate provider but s/he is unable to provide the required services, we will use our reasonable endeavours to source an alternative provider, free of charge.
- 2.8 If you do not already have a medical diagnosis when you contact us. If you do not have a medical diagnosis, we will arrange for one of our clinicians to conduct an initial examination and, once he or she has determined a diagnosis, we will refer you to an appropriate consultant provider who can provide specialist care. The charges for this are described in more detail in clause 7.1.

3. Providing the services

- 3.1 We will provide the service of management and billing to you with reasonable care and skill. We will promptly contact our providers following our acceptance of your request with a view to arranging an initial consultation within 24 hours of our initial contact with our provider, however, the timing of the initial consultation is dependent upon a number of factors including the availability of our providers. By agreeing to these terms and conditions, you agree that the services will be provided to you as soon as possible and within the cancellation period (please see clause 4.2).
- 3.2 We are not responsible for delays outside our control. If the supply of our services is delayed by an event outside our reasonable control we will contact you as soon as possible to let you know and we will take steps to minimise the effect of any delay. Provided we do this, we will not be further liable to you for any delays caused by the delay, but if there is a risk of substantial delay you may contact us to end our contract and to receive a refund for the service that you have paid for, but not received. We will not be liable for any costs, charges or losses sustained directly or indirectly as a result of performance of our services being delayed outside of our reasonable control.
- 3.3 By you signing this agreement you confirm that any out of pocket charges incurred by us of any nature in performing services under this agreement will be due and payable by you.
- 3.4 What will happen if you do not provide required information to us. If we require further information from you to be able to refer you to an appropriate provider (such as your medical history), we will contact you in writing or call you to collect this information. If you do not give us this information within a reasonable period of time, or if you provide us with incomplete or incorrect information, we may either terminate our contract (in which case clause 6 will apply). We will not be responsible for any delay in supplying the services to you if this is caused by you not giving us the information we need within a reasonable time of us asking for it.

4. Your right to end our contract

- 4.1 You may terminate our contract if you have a valid reason to do so. The reasons that entitle you to terminate the contract are listed at 4.1.1 to 4.1.3 below and if you do end our contract for one of these reasons, our contract will end immediately and we will refund you in full all monies you have paid.
- 4.2 The termination reasons are:
- 4.2.1 We have informed you about an error in the price or description of the services that you have ordered and you do not wish to proceed;
  - 4.2.2 There is a risk that the supply of the services to you may be significantly delayed because of events outside our control; or
  - 4.2.3 You have a legal right to end the contract because we have breached the terms of the contract.
- 4.3 Ending the contract where we are not at fault. Even if we are not at fault and you do not have a right to change your mind (see clause 4.2) you can still end our contract before it is completed, but you may have to pay us compensation and any fees due at the time the contract is terminated. A contract for services is completed when we have finished providing the services and you have paid for them. If you want to end a contract before it is completed where we are not at fault and you have not changed your mind, just contact us to let us know. The contract will end immediately when we are notified and we will refund any sums paid by you for any services not provided, but we may deduct from that refund (or, if you have not made any advance payment, charge you) reasonable compensation for the net costs we will incur as a result of your ending the contract.
